

Deforestation and Extractive Conflicts: The Fight for Self-Determination and Climate Justice by Indigenous Peoples in Thailand

In this lecture, we explore the challenges Indigenous Peoples in Thailand face as they struggle for self-determination and climate justice. We examine how land rights are defined, which extractive conflicts are unfolding, and how these communities respond through campaigns, legal action, and everyday resistance.

© AIPP

© privat

PIRAWAN WONGNITHISATHAPORN

- Environmental Program Officer at the Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact, supporting advocacy for Indigenous Peoples' rights and indigenous women at national and international levels

December 17, 2025 // 12:15pm - 1:45pm
Department for Southeast Asian Studies

Nassestraße 2, 53113 Bonn
3rd floor, seminar room 3.005